

Nurses at the Forefront of HIV/AIDS: Prevention, Care and Treatment Forum

Nurses at the Forefront of HIV/AIDS: Prevention, Care and Treatment is a one-day international forum of nursing professionals working in the area of HIV/AIDS in clinical, educational, policy and research settings. The forum is being held at the University of Toronto, Canada on August 12, 2006.

The forum will highlight how nurses make a difference in the lives of millions of people working and living with HIV/AIDS. It will be held in advance of the XVI International AIDS Conference in Toronto August 13-18, 2006.

Nurses Making a Difference

As the world's largest group of health-care professionals, nurses are actively engaged in HIV/AIDS prevention, care, treatment and support at every level of their health systems. With their expertise and commitment, nurses are ideally positioned to identify innovative strategies and best practices to address the needs of people living with HIV/AIDS as well as those of their families and communities.

Join us to share knowledge, innovations, best practices and challenges about some of the most pressing HIV/AIDS issues.

12 August 2006 Toronto, Canada
